SCIL ANNOUNCES EXCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIP WITH AESCULAP

Scil Shows Strength in Surgical Vet Market Resulting in New Expanded Product Line

Chicago, Illinois, February 23, 2010 — scil animal care company, inc., a global organization focused on providing high quality veterinary diagnostic equipment, is proud to announce an elite partnership with Aesculap! Scil is now the exclusive distributor of Aesculap's Power Systems surgical product line for the North American Veterinary market.

Aesculap, a division of the B. Braun Group, is based in Tuttlingen, Germany and renowned for their high-quality surgical tools and accessories. Their product line is known throughout the world for its precision, durability, reliability and design. Scil's initial partnership with Aesculap was limited to the Acculan Mini Surgical Drill and the Electric and Pneumatic Power Systems. Scil marketed Aesculap's product and brand to the U.S. vet market for three years, achieving remarkable results in sales and Aesculap brand recognition.

Due to scil's success with the Aesculap products they introduced to the U.S. vet market, Pablo Lopez, President of scil animal care company, USA, made it his priority to achieve greater success by pursuing an exclusive partnership with the surgical giant. "I am pleased Aesculap has recognized the value of having scil animal care as a long term partner in the North American veterinary market. This partnership validates all the hard work and time our team has invested. Scil animal care will continue to be committed to the veterinary surgical community" said Pablo Lopez, President of scil animal care company, USA.
